COUNCILLORS' REPORTS.

IW Cllr Hastings had sent a written report, which was circulated.

Cllrs Wills and Jones had attended the meeting of the South Wight Health & Wellbeing organisation the previous day and had received an interesting presentation from Mr Bulpitt of Community Action IW. It was noted how much was now being done by the voluntary sector as funding cuts had taken effect. The next meeting would be in Rookley on 17 July.

Cllr Willis said there had been another 'event' in the field behind the Co-op, this time local youths. Some clearing up had taken place.

Cllr RigaudBarrett would attempt to make progress on a newsletter.

Cllr Wills said the services of the person tending the flower beds on the Green had been dispensed with due to ineffectiveness. Mr Marshall had stepped in to work the area with flowers provided by Highwood Nursery. Since the sponsorship from Island Car Sales was no longer needed for this, an attempt would be made to redirect this to the Christmas lights.

There being no further business, the meeting was closed at 20.20
